

BRF summer festival volunteer

BRF will be exhibiting at the New Wine United festival for the first time this summer. We are looking for volunteers to work alongside BRF staff on our stand in the marketplace and talk with delegates about the exciting and diverse work of BRF.

We want to get delegates excited about how we help parents speak to their children about God through Parenting for Faith; how we enable communities to reach the unchurched through Messy Church; how we are helping the local church meet the spiritual needs of older people through Anna Chaplaincy; how we help people explore scripture and grow as disciples through our various books and Bible reading notes; how through Holy Habits churches can engage more intentionally with discipleship; how we go into schools and creatively help children explore Christian values and share Bible stories through Barnabas in Schools.

We are looking for volunteers to commit to either Friday 26 July to Friday 2 August and / or Saturday 3 August to Saturday 10 August. By volunteering for only 4 hours a day there will also be plenty of time to immerse yourself in all that the festival has to offer.

What the role involves

- Committing 4 hours a day to volunteering on the BRF stand on a rolling shift pattern
- Talking with delegates about the work of BRF and its various programmes
- Helping delegates access the BRF websites and informing them of other resources available
- Assisting those who wish to sign up to our mailing lists
- Directing delegates to the BRF website should they wish to donate

Who we are looking for?

We are looking for people:

- Who like to chat
- Who are excited about the work of BRF (we are aware that you will probably only know about one or two areas of our work, and will train you in the other areas)

What you get

- An opportunity to learn more about the work of BRF and share this with others
- Onsite training about the wider work of BRF
- A New Wine United ticket for the week you volunteer
- Travel expenses reimbursed
- Meal ticket for the week
- A free BRF T-shirt

What's not included is a tent or caravan, you will have to bring your own.
